

TAXATION AND CREDITS ARE ILLS

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 27.—
The chief ills of the U. S. at the present time are too much credit and a pro-tem of war time taxation, it was declared today by W. L. Saunders, president of the American Manufacturers' Association, addressing the convention of the Chamber of Commerce of America.

"What we are really suffering from," he declared, "is that business is booming beyond our ability to take care of it. We should provide safeguards against great extensions of credit.
Discount rates should be high enough to restrain speculation, profiteering and unnecessary borrowing.

Taxation, which always makes increased costs and high prices, should be put on a peace time basis. The

SAN RENO CONFERENCE IS ENDED

LONDON, April 27.—The meeting of the Inter-allied supreme council officially came to a close at San Remo today with the departure of the central figures for their homes. The adjournment of the conference is more in the nature of a month's recess, as it is generally expected that the conference will be resumed late in May with the German representatives at Spa.

The last minute decision to assign Italy a large sphere of "economic influence" in Anatolia is looked upon as a measure to placate Italy for the failure to adjust the Adriatic and Fiume matters. The territory assigned is rich in natural resources and has much coal of which Italy is sadly in need.

The conference, in its final session, also devoted considerable discussion to the proposed trials of German war criminals, but apparently no decision was reached.

NEW PLAN TO END SUGAR PROFITEERING

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Elimination of sugar speculators was said to be assured here today by an agreement between the department of justice and executives of the principal sugar refiners of the East.

The agreement prohibits the resale of sugar to middlemen for speculative purposes, and a program was adopted under which all sales will be made direct to jobbers and wholesalers.

Atty. Gen. Palmer said he believed the result would be an instant check on profiteering.

General Wood has vision.—New York Tribune.
It is decidedly apparent that Wood is the choice of Indiana Republicans.—Ft. Wayne News-Sentinel.
General Wood takes a broad, patriotic view of this country's responsibilities.—Muncie Star.
Their (the women) support of General Wood is sufficient answer to those who are afraid of their vote on questions which involve their emotions.—Marion Chronicle.
For General Wood it might be said that he has discharged with brilliant fidelity and success every task that has been laid to his hand.—Terre Haute Star.
All of these figures point to the complete and sure success of Leonard Wood in the primaries, in the Republican convention, and in the national election.—The Cleveland News.

Candidacy Free From Factions

Wood represents no faction, and, like Hughes in 1916, his activities in 1912 kept him out of party strifes and, like Hughes, he will help to more firmly cement and solidify party ties.

Roosevelt's Opinion of Leonard Wood

"During these 18 years he (Wood) has rendered to America service of the very highest value and of a kind that could be rendered only by a man of wholly exceptional ability and power, ardent in his big-hearted devotion to the honor of the flag and the welfare of the nation."—Theodore Roosevelt in 1918.

Wood's Number on the Primary Ballot is —15—

The Spirit of Roosevelt Lives

Wood's Popularity is Not a Manufactured Sentiment but an Accumulation of Faith

A Real Rooseveltism!

"This country is going to be run by Americans, cost what it may. It does not make any difference what the cost is. It is going to be run on a basis of government under the Constitution with due respect for Law and Order, with a recognition for the Supremacy of the Law, the Rights of Property, the Rights of the Individual, the Rights of Mankind. No Class Legislation, no Autocracy, either of Wealth, Labor or Power, but a real Democracy and a Spirit of Cooperation and Helpfulness."

LEONARD WOOD REPRESENTS MORE THAN ANY OTHER MAN, THE TRADITIONS OF THEODORE ROOSE-VELT. His reputation rests on his great ability as an executive and administrator. No other man is more vigorous, mentally and physically, or as well equipped by actual experience as Leonard Wood, to take up and carry the physical burdens of the presidential office.

Straube
An Orchestra of Your Own

What delightful evenings are in store for the owner of a Melo-Harp! This wonderful player-piano is delightfully different. It's almost an orchestra in itself, for it combines the liquid strains of the harp with the mellow tones of a perfect piano.

You must see and hear the Melo-Harp to fully realize the advantages of this instrument. Come in and play your favorite selections on the Straube-

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 18 she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor.
She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MINNIE MANDELKO, 1005 S. 18th St., & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Man-delko was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
